REPORT OF THE COUNCIL

1. Members of Council

Our President, Jessica Harrison-Hall, will stand down at this AGM as she has served three years as President. Beth McKillop, Former Deputy Director of the Victoria & Albert Museum, has agreed to take over her role as President subject to approval at the AGM by members. The Vice President and Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Peter White, the Hon. Secretary and Editor of the Transactions, Dr. Stacey Pierson and the Assistant Honorary Secretary Vaughan Hart, retire under Articles 44 and 45, and offer themselves for re-election. There were no new Council members elected in 2015 and therefore none retire this year. Angela McAteer remains on Council as the OCS representative in North America and Ming Wilson as the Victoria & Albert Museum representative. However, Dr Nicole Rousmaniere has asked to retire from Council as the British Museum representative and Jessica Harrison-Hall has agreed to resume this role. Council proposes that the following new members be elected to Council: Dr. Teresa Canepa and Beth Gardiner (co-editors of the OCS Newsletter) and Clive Jacotine (a collector.) Council has agreed to co-opt Harry Douglas-Hamilton and Willemijn van Noord (Curator of the Museum of World Cultures in Leiden) on to Council for a further year to continue organising the OCS tours and they have kindly agreed. Any other nominations must reach the Secretary by 1st June with the names of the proposer and seconder and a statement by the candidate that he or she is willing to serve, if elected.

2. Council Members' Responsibilities. The Society is a charitable company limited by guarantee and members of Council are the trustees. The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Society and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Society.

3. The Accounts and Results. The surplus for the year to 30.09.2017, added to the general fund, was £10,067 (2016 surplus £2,672). The Society has £248,718 (£234,073) in the bank accounts. Provision has been made for the net estimated costs of £6,000 for TOCS 81 (covering lectures to 30.09.2017). See note 5. The budget for the year to 30.09.18 anticipates a small surplus. Mary Ginsberg has independently assessed the 2017 accounts.

4. Subscriptions to the Society. For subscriptions, payment can now be made by Worldpay, via our website. U.K. members are requested to sign standing orders and where possible Gift Aid forms. The Society prefers to receive overseas subscription payments by Worldpay, credit card or bank transfer. Ordinary members are asked to consider becoming Benefactor or Patron members.

5. Sponsorship. The Society is most appreciative of the donations it receives from our generous sponsors, including sponsorship of the annual Woolf Jade Lecture by Mr. Jonathan Woolf and the Woolf Charitable Trust; of lectures by mainland Chinese scholars through the Chinese Scholars Fund supported by Lillian and Lincoln Chin; of the annual Sonia Lightfoot Memorial Paintings Lecture by John Lightfoot, of the annual Sir Michael Butler Memorial Lecture by Katharine and Charles Butler and an annual export art lecture sponsored by the Dr. Mok Hing Yiu Charitable Foundation. In addition we are most grateful for sponsorship of many of our lectures and drinks receptions by Woolley & Wallis, of our AGM lecture and reception by Sotheby's and of an annual lecture by Bonhams, Christie's and Duke's Auctioneers. The Society is always open to more offers of sponsorship.

6. Advertising. We are most grateful to those members who support the Society through advertisements in the Transactions and also the Newsletter, as this helps to defray the costs of these publications. The Society hopes that such advertising will continue and increase.

7. Privacy Statement and Data Protection

The OCS retains the names, addresses and other contact details (including email addresses) of its members for annual renewal and mailing purposes only (newsletter, lecture announcements and TOCS etc). Appropriate care is taken by the Society to ensure the security of this data. This list is updated annually, on renewal of membership, and membership is understood to grant consent for the OCS to retain and use these details in the above manner. The OCS does not retain contact details of past members. Members' details are not accessible to, or shared with, third parties, and these details are not used for commercial purposes. The OCS does not retain members' financial details (credit card details etc). If members have any concerns on this matter they should email the Society's Secretary Mary Painter at ocs.london@btinternet.com.

8. Rules of the Society. The Rules of the Society provide that no member is entitled to make use of the Society's name for any business or trade purpose, nor shall any member dealing in antiquities or ceramic wares advertise his membership except in the Society's Transactions or Newsletter.

9. Website. Work on our new website continues and which will eventually also include some content in Chinese. We are delighted that we now have all volumes of our journal TOCS on our website and members can now search these, using the necessary password, via the Members' Area of our website.

10. Patron. We are most honoured to have as our Patron, H.R.H. The Duke of Gloucester, and are grateful for his support of and interest in the Society.

11. The OCS 2021 Centenary Events

Provision is being made within the OCS budget for an exhibition in 2021 to celebrate 100 years of collecting, lectures and events. An exhibition committee has been set up. Venues and themes for the exhibition are currently being discussed. The intention is to put together a show of 100 items accompanied by a publication and a conference with invited speakers. Members will be involved as plans progress.
